

Association for Respiratory Technology and Physiology National Strategy Day for Leaders in Respiratory and Sleep Science

6th September 2019, 9.00am to 5.10pm
Hilton Birmingham Metropole

9:00-9:25	Refreshments, exhibition and networking An opportunity to visit the manufacturers' exhibition and network with colleagues.
9:25-9:35	Chair: Julie Lloyd Welcome Welcome and introduction to the day	Julie Lloyd
9:35-10:20	Chairs: Julie Lloyd/Jo Shakespeare Main speaker	Angela Douglas
10:20-10:40	Chairs: Julie Lloyd/Jo Shakespeare Workforce shortages Proposals for alternative ways of training and developing the future respiratory and sleep healthcare scientists.	Katrina Oates
10:40-11:00	Chairs: Julie Lloyd/Jo Shakespeare Apprenticeships	Jane Caldwell TBC
11:00-11:30	Refreshments, exhibition and informal networking	Manufacturers' exhibition
11:30-12:15	Chairs: Julie Lloyd/Jo Shakespeare Leadership What makes a good leader? Understanding yourself and how this may impact on your leadership style	TBC
12:15-13:00	Chairs: Julie Lloyd/Jo Shakespeare GIRFT and Respiratory and Sleep Science Getting it right first time (GIRFT) is a national programme designed to improve medical care in the NHS and suggestions for best practice	Dr Martin Allen
13:00-14:00	Lunch, exhibition and networking
14:00-16:00	Chair: Professor Brendan Cooper Sleep service provision and it's challenges A discussion on the challenges facing sleep services across the UK and proposals for alternative models of delivery. A facilitated debate on proposed service models	Professor Brendan Cooper
10 Minutes	Issues facing sleep services in Scotland	DR Christopher Carlin TBC

10 Minutes	Issues facing sleep services in Wales	DR Liz Brohan TBC
10 Minutes	Issues facing sleep services in England	Dr Adrian Kendrick
15 Minutes	Independent sector style of service provision outlining any issues	DR David Dawson TBC
15 Minutes	Traditional consultant led model outlining any issues	DR Asad Ali
15 Minutes	Do we need consultant involvement for diagnosis and management of OSAHS	Professor Brendan Cooper
45 Minutes	Facilitated Debate	Discussion
16:00-16:15	Refreshments, exhibition and networking
16:15-17:00	Chairs: Julie Lloyd and Jo Shakespeare The NHS Long Term Plan for Respiratory Looking at the impact of the NHS Long Term Plan published on 7 th January 2019	Professor Mike Morgan TBC
17:00-17:10	Chairs: Julie Lloyd and Jo Shakespeare The last word Final wrap up and close	Julie Lloyd Jo Shakespeare